

STUDY TOUR

The department of Political Science organized the departmental study tour to Sandeiberini village, located in Sadar block, Denkhanal district on date.27/01/2025. Students gained the practical knowledge of rural governance and developmental initiatives of both central and state government which is very much helpful to the Welfare model of Democracy complementing to their academic careers.

