

Report on Seven-Day Special Camp
Organized by: NSS Unit, Salipur Autonomous College
Venue: Salipur Autonomous College, Rodhapur
Date: 04.08.2024

The NSS Unit of Salipur Autonomous College successfully organized a Seven-Day Special Camp with the active participation of volunteers, programme officers, and faculty members. The camp aimed at community service, environmental protection, and spreading social awareness among the local population.

Day 1: Inauguration

The camp was inaugurated with a formal meeting attended by the Principal, faculty, NSS officers, and local dignitaries. The objectives of the camp were explained, and volunteers were motivated to dedicate themselves to service throughout the week.

Day 2: Plantation & Post-Plantation Care

A plantation drive was carried out in the college campus and nearby community areas. Volunteers not only planted saplings but also ensured post-plantation care by cleaning the fields, watering the plants, and erecting protective barricades.

Day 3: Cleanliness Drive

A massive cleanliness campaign was undertaken in public areas such as schools, hospital premises, temples, and market surroundings. Volunteers spread the message of hygiene and sanitation among villagers.

Day 4: Health Awareness Programme

A health awareness camp was organized in collaboration with local health workers. Free health check-ups were provided, and awareness sessions were conducted on topics like balanced diet, hygiene, and the prevention of communicable diseases.

Day 5: Awareness Rally & Swachhata Campaign

Volunteers conducted a rally highlighting social issues such as gender equality, women's empowerment, literacy, and the importance of cleanliness. Posters, slogans, and street plays were presented to make the programme more effective.

Day 6: Cultural & Educational Activities

students organized cultural programmes, quiz competitions, and skits to engage the community, particularly school children. The performances conveyed strong messages on social unity, environmental conservation, and moral values.

Day 7: Valedictory Function

The camp concluded with a valedictory meeting where volunteers shared their experiences. Certificates of appreciation were distributed, and the NSS Programme Officer delivered the vote of thanks. The Principal praised the efforts of the volunteers and encouraged them to continue their commitment to social service.

Conclusion

The Seven-Day Special Camp was a grand success. It not only helped the volunteers gain practical experience in community service but also created awareness among the local people on issues of health, cleanliness, and environment. The spirit of teamwork and social responsibility displayed by the students truly reflected the motto of NSS—“Not Me, But You.”

